The spirit of the game of cricket involves respect for the opposition, your team, the umpires and the game's traditional values.

The following behaviour has no place in any St Patrick's team:

- Sledging (i.e. verbal abuse intended to offend an opposition player)
- Obvious disagreement with an umpires decision
- Deliberate time wasting
- Bad and/or offensive language
- Abuse of equipment, particularly after dismissal
- Consuming of alcohol during a match

The coach and captain should set an example to their team and ensure that none of these occur by either the players or spectators.

We also recommend ALL Players read & observe the Cricket Australia Codes of Behaviour.
